Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

The freshmen ten — you gain them but never lose them!

Pussy Willows, Blueberry Muffins, and Love dedicated to Uncle Arthur Perhaps you've seen him
it's difficult not to notice . . .
his warm smile,
his friendly, blue eyes,
his gentle hello.
Everyone calls him "Uncle Arthur" probably because
he lets
you
get so close,
it's just his nature.
Favorite things
he likes to share —
butterscotch candies
cribbage boards
pussy willow
blueberry muffins
and love.
I saw him today . . .
walking slowly,
age creeping into his muscles,
and yet
his mind, heart, soul
bubbling over
with the excitement of a secret.
Perhaps you've seen him
it's difficult not to notice . . .
how much
he enjoys living.

ONE
WAY

IT sits
just a seed.
Surely it will grow
as the sun's arms
feels their way into its thin-skinned pod,
giving life to every delicate tissue.
The rain god lightly sprinkles its perfume of sweet smelling waters.
A new day's sunrise
soaks the seed
in a bath of soothing warmth.
ALIVE
sprouting with freshness.
BLOSSOMING
this seed . . .
a birth
meant to be.

I can not "make my mark" for all time — those concepts are mutually exclusive.
"Lasting effect" is a self-contradictory term. Meaning does not exist in the future and neither do I. Nothing will have meaning "ultimately." Nothing will even mean tomorrow what it did today.
Meaning changes with the context. My meaningfulness is here. It is enough that I am of value to someone today.
It is enough that I make a difference now.

Hugh Prather

This book is for all of you now. What it meant to us when it was being created can not possibly match all of our feelings at this time and in the future, but it is our attempt to preserve some of the memories from 1974-1978; memories which are both for forever and for now.

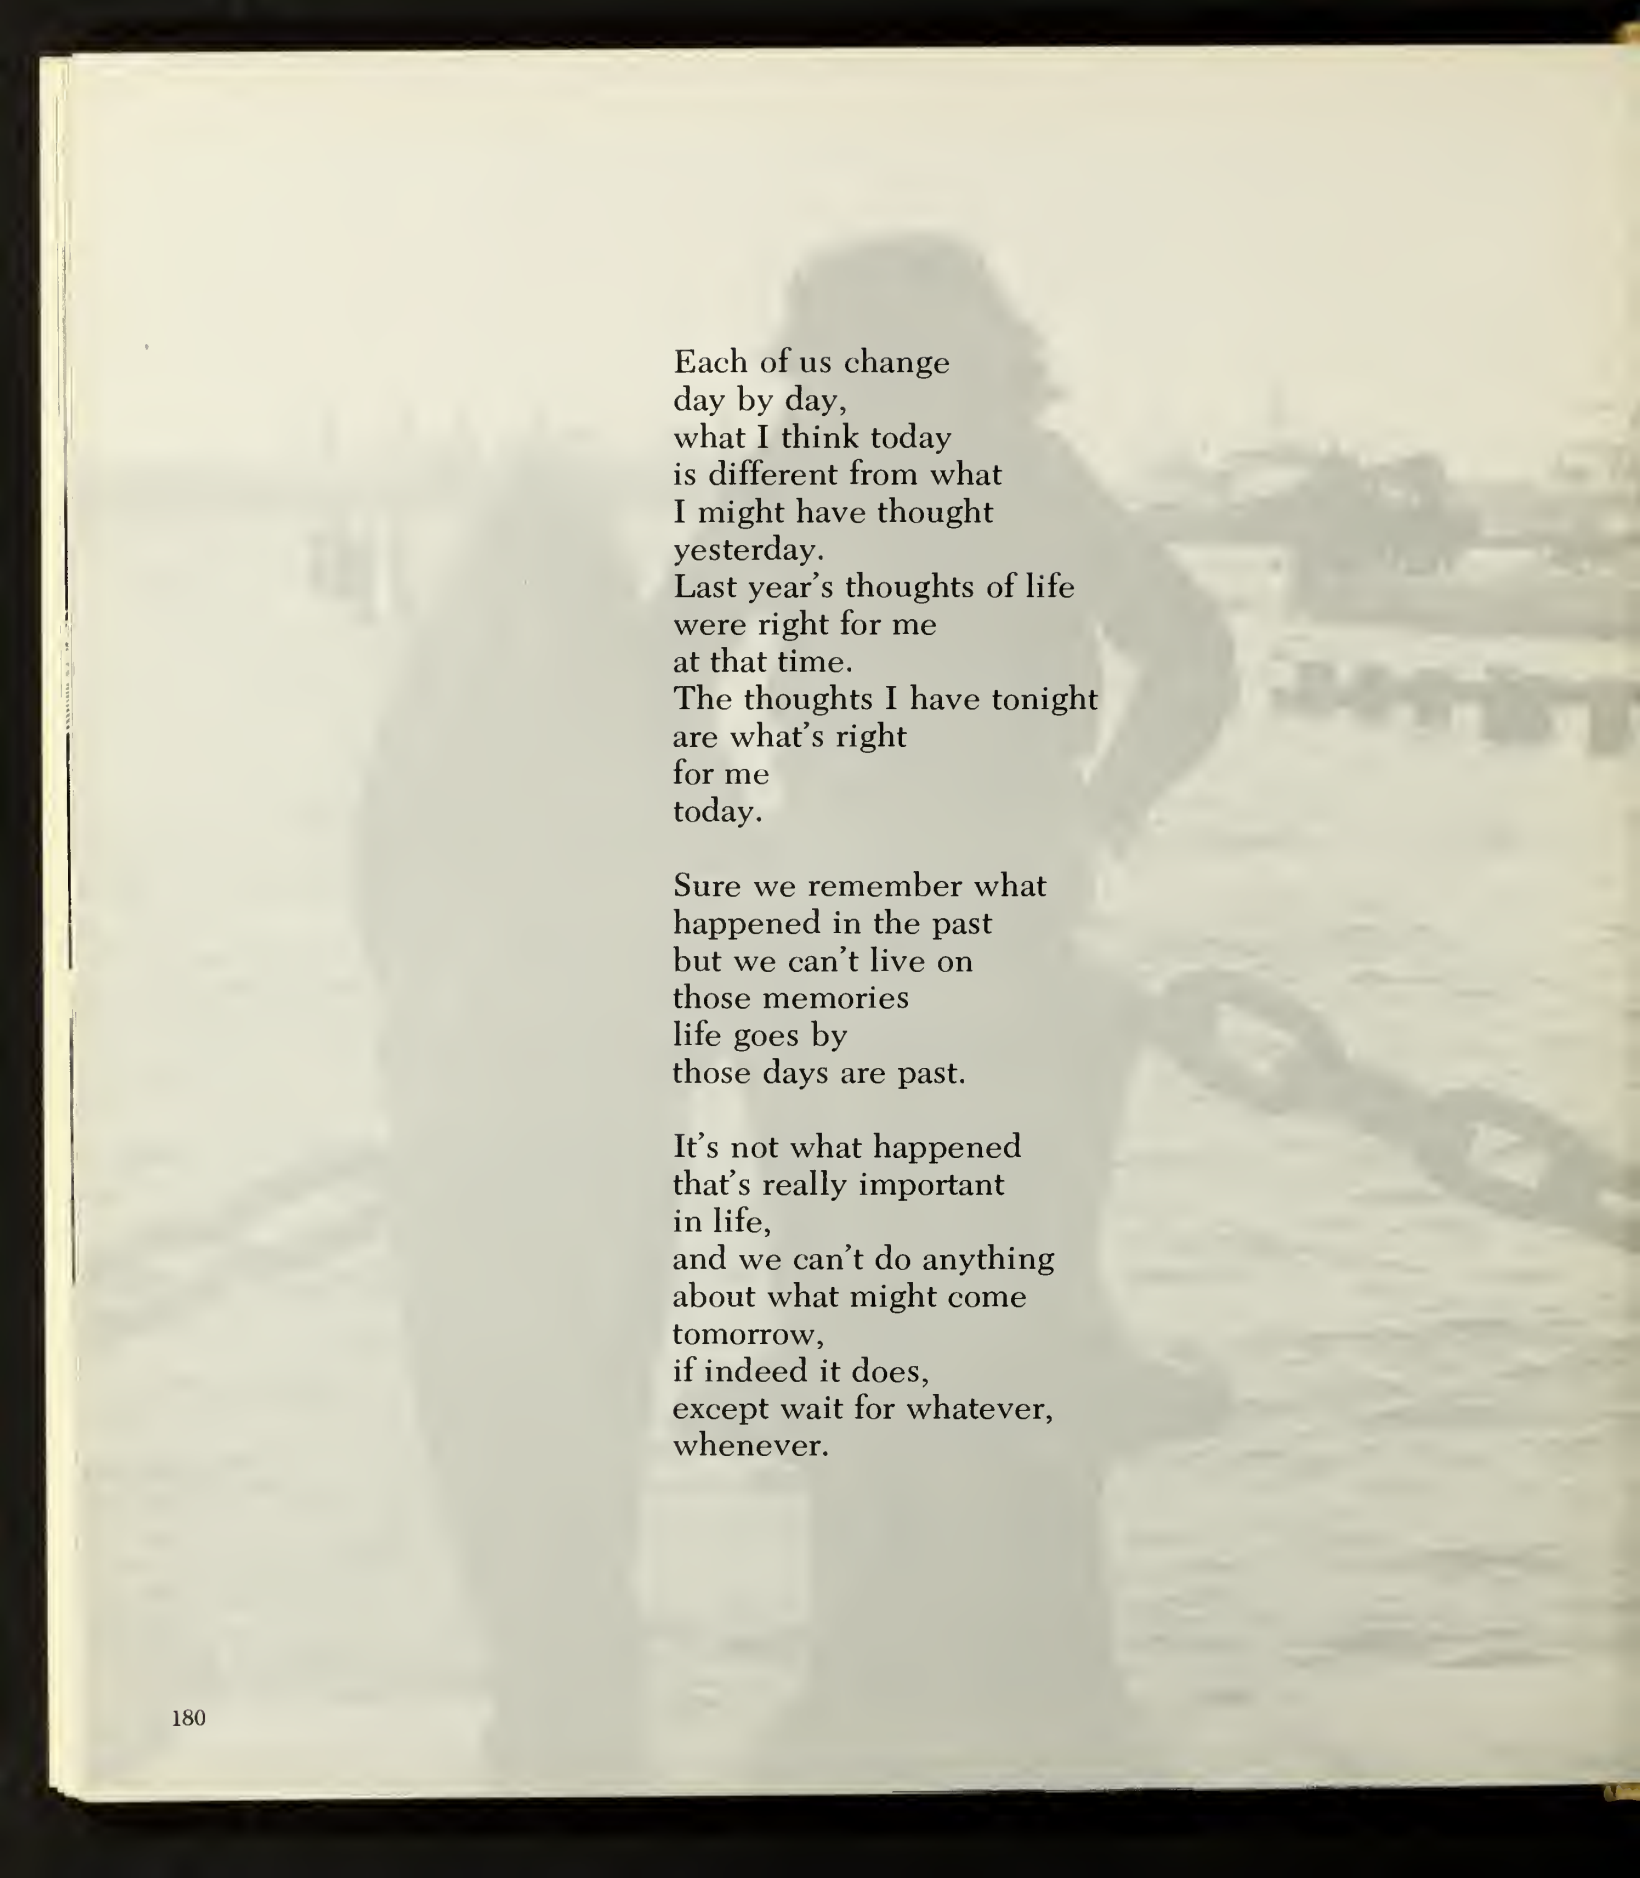
Special recognition for her hours and efforts spent on Mt. Regis 1978 should go to Jeanmarie Tognazzi, a uniquely dedicated Lay-out Editor to whom I am thankful.

Lynn M. Sweeney



Each of us change
day by day,
what I think today
is different from what I might have thought
yesterday.
Last year's thoughts of life
were right for me
at that time.
The thoughts I have tonight
are what's right
for me
today.

Sure we remember what happened in the past
but we can't live on
those memories
life goes by
those days are past.

It's not what happened
that's really important
in life,
and we can't do anything about what might come
tomorrow,
if indeed it does,
except wait for whatever,
whenever.
